ROSEWOOD CORDEVALLE NAMED THE TOP RESORT HOTEL IN CALIFORNIA ON TRAVEL + LEISURE'S 2017 WORLD'S BEST AWARDS LIST

Travel + Leisure has named Rosewood CordeValle the “Best Resort Hotel, California” on its 2017 World's Best Awards list. Compiled by Travel + Leisure's global team of reporters and editors, the annual World's Best Awards list, which is voted on by Travel + Leisure readers, ranks the best travel destinations around the globe, including hotels, airports, cities and islands.

"We are incredibly honored to be recognized as the leading resort in California by the readers of Travel + Leisure," said Luca Rutigliano, managing director of Rosewood CordeValle. "This award is a testament to all of the hard work, ingenuity and care that our entire staff puts towards ensuring that every guest has a memorable stay."

Nestled in the foothills of the Santa Cruz Mountains, Rosewood CordeValle is a serene oasis in the heart of the Northern California countryside. The sprawling property spans over 1,700 acres and includes an on-site winery and vineyard, signature Sense®, A Rosewood Spa, state-of-the-art meeting and conference rooms, three exquisite dining options and the award-winning Robert Trent Jones Jr. golf course, which stretches over 7,360 yards and offers 360-degree unobstructed mountain views.

The World's Best Awards list is created using a survey developed by the editors of Travel + Leisure, in association with digital marketing firm Wylei. With voting open from December 2016 to March 2017, the survey required readers to rate a wide range of hotels, destinations, cruises, airlines and tour operators on a number of characteristics, in order to determine the best in each of the respective categories. The awards will be announced in the August 2017 issue of the magazine.
